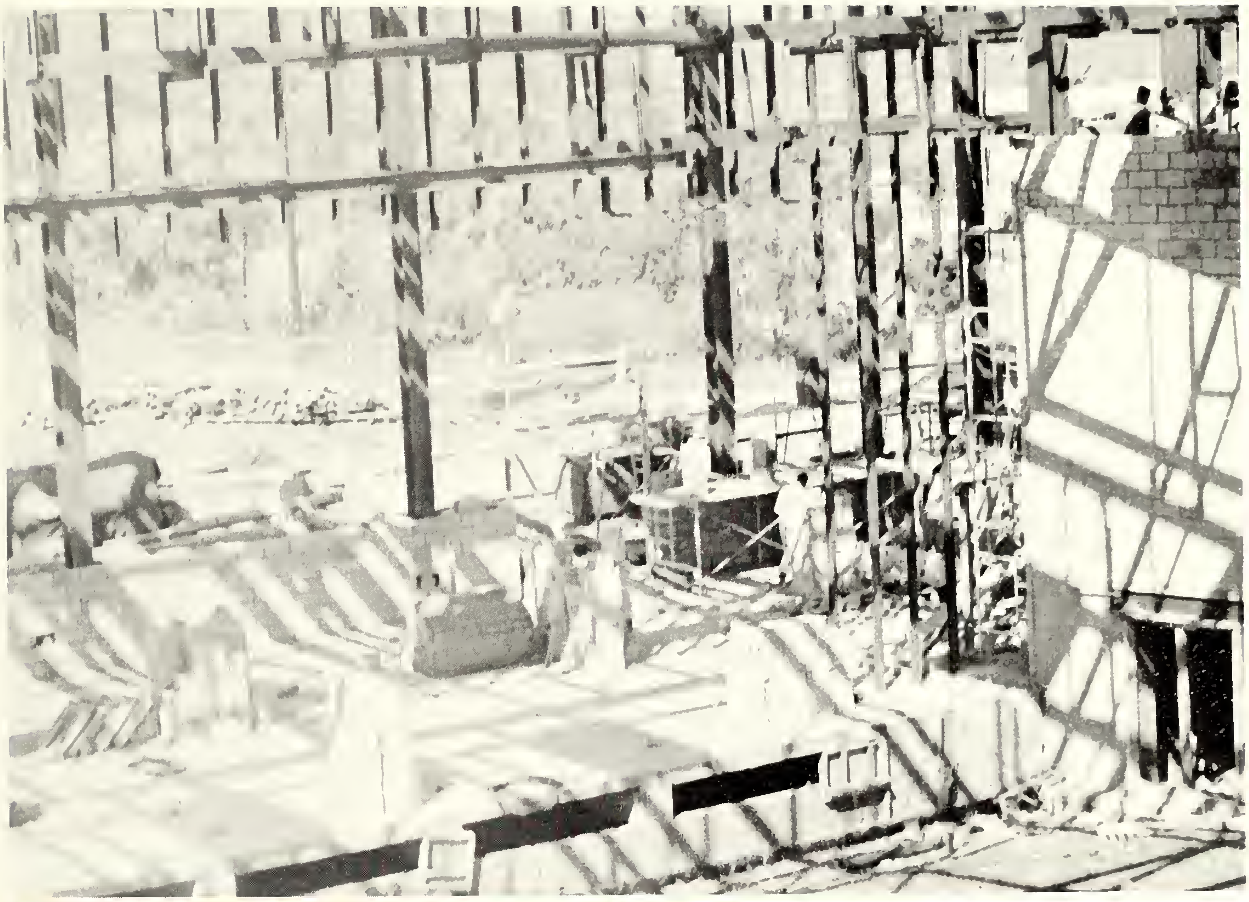
Faithful Old Glory

Foreword



A Study in Light and Shadow—Symbolic of Things to Come

Foreshadowing the future and highlighting the past, symbols have been used in this 1967 Catamount to depict life at Potomac State College. From a Freshman's beanie to a graduating Sophomore's cap and gown, these pictures express the intellectual and social development prominent on our college campus.

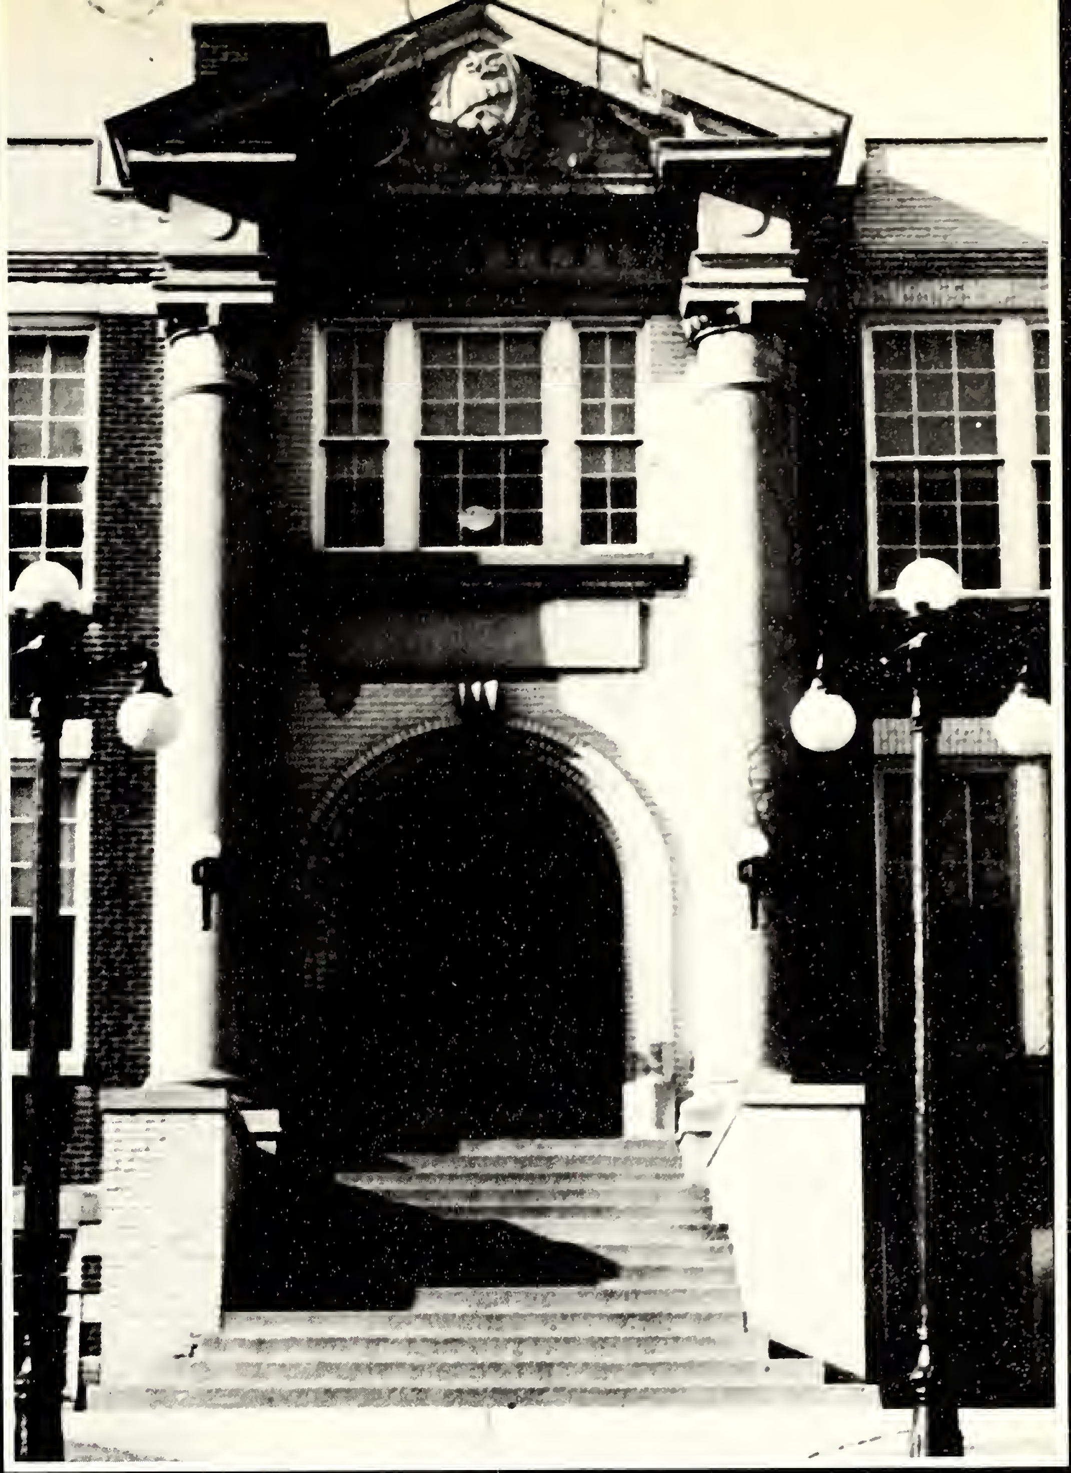
DEDICATION

We, the Administration, Faculty, and Student Body of Potomac State College, dedicate this 1967 edition of the Catamount to "Miss Rebecca" for her over forty years of loyalty, devotion, and service to our Alma Mater. She was the guiding hand that carefully nurtured the physical young men and women in order to enable them to become better students.

Milton must have had in mind such a noble individual as "Miss Rebecca" when he wrote:

"Who best
Bear his mild yoke, they serve him best. His state
Is kingly: thousands at his bidding speed,
And post o'er land and ocean without rest;
They also serve who only stand and wait."



ADMINISTRATION
FACULTY

DR. TODD H. BULLARD

President

The theme of this year's Catamount seems especially appropriate, for in the final analysis, all colleges are symbols of certain values.

Hopefully, Potomac State College has symbolized for each student the cherished collegiate values of truth, scholarship, honest effort, civility, and good character. Indeed, no college can be true to its historic origins if it fails to honor these values.

In the years ahead I know that you will look through the pages of this book with much nostalgia. But I hope that you will also see in these pages the symbols of the values for which the college stands, and that you will draw strength from them throughout your lives.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomore Features

Sophomore guides for Freshman Week.

Although the week preceding the first classes of the Fall Semester is called Freshman Week, Sophomores seem to enjoy that time of the year more than the younger members of our student body. As well as serving as official guides for the week, the second-year students compose Freshman rules which are effective until Homecoming. They insist that the new students learn many essential facts, such as the number of red flowers in the flower bed. Some did not learn well enough and they face Judge James Stanton in Kangaroo Court. The top four class officers serve as leaders in the Student Government.

FRESHMEN

Freshmen Features

The Freshman Class of 1966 was greeted at Potomac State by a week of orientation, test-taking and entertainment. After moving into the dormitories and bidding a last farewell to their parents, our new students faced hours of standing in line for yearbook pictures, to buy beanies, to register, and to purchase their books. On the brighter side, every evening was filled with activities including informal dances, games, and a sing-along, as well as the Know Your Organizations convocation. No one had time to get homesick. The Freshmen became a voice in the government of PSC upon the election of their class officers, following a lively campaign and class caucas.

The faculty entertained the Freshmen and their parents at an informal reception.

ORGANIZATIONS

Dormitory students enjoy the annual Christmas dinner.

Christmas

Amid the hectic final examination study schedule, Potomac State students found time to celebrate Christmas in the traditional ways on campus. There was the annual Christmas Dinner, as well as the women's dormitory parties. The Singers and the Concert Band again combined to present their Christmas program. In place of their annual Christmas party for needy children, the Home Economics Club purchased a gift for twenty-one selected young boys and girls. Sigma Iota Chi and Phi Sigma Nu provided a lovely Christmas Ball. Under the twink--ling of our traditional Christmas star, our thoughts turned to being home for Christmas.

Kappa Delta Psi members partake of refreshments at their Christmas tea.

Legislative Meeting

Student Council

The Student Government is the governing order of the Student Body. Its goals are to further school spirit and to achieve a cordial understanding between students and faculty. The organization manages many campus activities and each member must maintain a 2.0 average.

In August of each year, guides are provided by the Council to welcome and aid the incoming freshmen. Members assist with the sale of "beanies" and distribute the freshman rules. During Freshman Week this year, two informal dances and a "sing-along" were provided in order for the freshmen to meet each other and the sophomores. The Student Government sponsored Homecoming activities by forming committees to plan the dance and assist with the parade. Programs for the home football games were sold by the members. In the fall, movies and informal dances were arranged for the Student Body's enjoyment. The organization purchased new equipment for the cheerleaders. The new constitution became effective.

The Preamble of the Constitution states that the functions of the Student Government are to improve academic standards among the students; to aid in promoting a better relationship among the students, faculty, and administration; to stimulate support of all college activities and programs; and to enhance the students' sense of responsibility to the college, the Student Government, and to himself.

Catamount—Our College Yearbook

The theme of this 1967 Catamount is symbols, and the book itself is a symbol not only of the many phases of our college life, but also the diligent work of the yearbook staff.

The planning of the book began in May of last year with the selection of the staff. Myriads of ideas were considered over the summer months and then Fall registration brought the beginning of the actual work. Student and faculty pictures were taken and orders for copies placed. Advertising and typing staffs were organized and the editorial staff began the seemingly unending cycle of laying out the dummy, setting up pictures, laying out pages, editing copy, and proofreading.

This twenty-ninth edition is the fruit of the labor of this year's staff. It was not purposeless for it is intended to provide a pictorial record of 1966-67 at Potomac State College. The highlights of the year may be recaptured in the pages of this annual — not only outstanding events, but also the normal routine you found at PSC. The hours in the classroom and in the dormitory studying, relaxing in the Student Center, participating in extra-curricular activities — all glimpses of our college life are recorded here for you and posterity.

The staff of the 1967 Catamount sincerely hopes this book presents successfully a cross-section of your world at Potomac State College.

The Pasquino

Editorial staff proofreads the newspaper

The college newspaper, the Pasquino, is completing its 45th continuous year of publication this spring. The fortnightly product of the journalism department has a press run of 2,300 copies of each edition which are distributed among students, staff members, parents, alumni, and others.

The name Pasquino is of historical significance. Still visible near the Piazza Navona in Rome is an ancient Greek marble statue found under the street in front of the home of a hunchbacked tailor named Pasquino, who was known for his biting and amusing sarcasm. After his death, about 1500 A.D., the statue became one of the so-called "talking statues" when the people posted on it sharp comments about the times, referring to the lampoons as pasquinate (in English "pasquinades").

Students in journalism classes are automatically members of the staff, but non-journalism students are also invited to serve on the staff. Journalism majors have an opportunity to assist with page makeup when the paper is printed at the News-Tribune plant.

The Pasquino sponsors the annual distribution of the Student-Faculty Directory. An annual spring highlight is the staff banquet for which the guest speaker is from the ranks of the communications media.

The Circle K Club of Potomac State College is the only true service organization on the campus. This organization is dedicated to the ideals of service to the college and the community of Keyser. The club was established in 1952 and was issued certificate number six when Circle K became an international organization. At the present time there are over five hundred and fifty Circle K Clubs in the United States and Canada. The club is made up of young men of good character and scholastic standing, who work in the service of others, their only return being the thanks and appreciation that comes from such work.

The club has had another active year, the major projects being the following: sponsorship of the second annual Leadership Banquet, sponsoring the Homecoming parade, bringing the Red Cross Blood Mobile to the campus, working at basketball games, working at football games, assisting at Parents' Day, aiding the National Collegiate Athletic Association with a drive for funds for the Olympic Games, delivering birthday cakes to the students, delivering "starvation kits" to students during the final examination period, and many other such projects of service.

Agriculture Club

Potomac State's Agriculture Club was formed in October of 1954. It is open to all students majoring in Agriculture, Pre-Veterinary Medicine, and Forestry.

Objectives of the Potomac State Agriculture Club are: to develop the use of parliamentary procedure in its meetings, to develop co-operation, citizenship, and leadership, and to promote recreational activities for the members of the organization.

Many activities were carried out jointly by the Home Economics and the Agriculture Clubs. These activities were: building a float for the Homecoming parade, holding a joint meeting at which the Agriculture Club gave a demonstration on parliamentary procedure and the Home Economics Club, a program on etiquette, and a trip was planned to a point of interest to both clubs. The Agriculture Club sold flower bulbs to aid in paying for this trip. This year's shooting match was a marked success because the club realized more of a profit than in previous years.

Engineers Club

Lending a professional atmosphere to the academic life of engineers on the campus, the Engineers Club has been in existence since 1932. The main purpose of the organization is to make the student engineer aware of the professional aspects of engineering. This is accomplished throughout the college year by inviting practicing engineers to give talks at meetings, the showing of industrial films, and taking trips to industrial plants in the area. Freshman engineers qualify for membership by attaining a required scholastic average during their first semester at Potomac State College. Sophomore engineers by election act as officers of the club.

The Potomac State College Chapter of Home Economics is affiliated with the West Virginia and American Home Economics Association. The chapter promotes interest and information on home economics as a profession.

The year began with a reception given by the sophomores as a Get-Acquainted Time for the freshmen. The chapter held the annual mum sale for homecoming, sent Christmas gifts to Keyser Elementary School and gave an Easter Party for the entertainment of selected students.

Monthly programs included: President Todd Bullard, who spoke on the changes in the field of Home Economics, and Dr. Elizabeth Atwater, who spoke on the art of conversation, and food demonstrations. The club jointly met with the Agriculture Club for a demonstration of Parliamentary Procedures and Etiquette with a reception following. Potomac State Chapter also participates at the Spring Meeting at Jackson's Mill.

Programs dealing with moral issues of interest to youth, and customs of various religions are presented at the meetings, held at the recreation room of Friend Hall each Monday evening.

The organization gave the children of the Methodist Children's Home at Burlington a Christmas party; co-sponsored with the Women's Residence Association in putting a picture by Salvador Dali, The Sacrament of the Last Supper, in memory of Janice Rose; conducted Pre-Easter Communion and worship services for Protestant students; and co-sponsored the Spiritual Emphasis Seminars with the Newman Club.

The Newman Club of Potomac State College is an organization of Catholic men and women on campus. The club is devoted to the strengthening of religious education and to instilling the desire to practice religion more fervently. The Newman Club participated in the clothing drive of the local Catholic Church, the Assumption. The club has been guided by the words of the Right Reverend John O'Connell, Spiritual Counselor of the club and pastor of the Church of the Assumption. The Newman Club co-sponsored with the Christian Youth Fellowship the annual Spiritual Emphasis Week on campus, February 12 and 13.

The Women's

Reynolds Hall

An important factor of a young woman's successful adjustment to college living is a good relationship with other women on campus. The Women's Residence Association, which is composed of all the women living in Friend and Reynolds Halls, tries to create a friendly, cooperative atmosphere in the Women's Residence Halls. This governing body, which was established on December 7, 1944, works with the two Hall Councils to further higher living standards. The organization endeavors to emphasize the social and cultural aspects of college life. One tradition of the Women's Residence Association is sponsoring the Christmas parties in Reynolds and Friend Halls. This year, a reproduction of the painting, The Last Supper, by Salvador Dali, was presented to the Recreation Room of Friend Hall as an in memoriam gift to remember Janice Rose by the W.R.A. and the Christian Youth Fellowship. A Christmas contribution was given to the Keyser Elementary School Hot Lunch Program for needy children.

The Women's Athletic Association of Potomac State College is an organization which promotes a feeling of sportsmanship among the young women of the college. The acquiring of leadership and sportsmanship is the goal of each member of the club.

This year the W. A. A. made artificial corsages for the Parents' Day celebration, and sponsored four girls in the Miss Potomac State Contest. Co-Recreation Nights are also on the list of activities for the club. Co-Recreation Night is an evening set aside for the women and men of the campus to display their athletic ability in several sports.

When 250 points are achieved by a young woman in the club she receives an emblem on Recognition Day at the end of the spring semester. Five hundred points warrant a school sweater.

The Potomac State 4-H Club, reorganized in 1964, provides an opportunity for former 4-H members and other students with a 4-H interest in 4-H to continue in Club work. The club has as its ideals a pure heart, a clean mind, and a healthy body. It also wishes to promote scholarship and leadership.

The college 4-H Club is mainly a service organization. It does needed work for the campus and the Mineral County Extension office.

This year the club helped decorate for one of the campus dances and conducted a Charting Conference in the spring.

College Club members have won honors in their counties. Judy Spencer won a trip to Cincinnati and gave a national demonstration; Kitty Austin judged dairy products in Iowa and Harold Whitlock won a trip to National 4-H Club Congress.

The Potomac Players, organized in 1919, has the distinction of being the oldest cultural organization on the college campus. The purpose of this club is to provide the school students with experience in every part of the theatre available. Training ranges from acting to set construction, lighting techniques to the art of stage make-up.

The season opened with a "Roaring Twenties Cabaret Theatre." Performances entertained packed audiences with singing, dancing and a presentation of the comedy, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." This year a drama class met and worked on the different productions. They presented one-act plays and cuttings in the striving for dramatic achievement. The major production of the year was "The Browning Version," a drama given during Fine Arts Week. The final presentation of the semester was the annual Lollipop Theatre. The Masque Awards for outstanding performances went to Linda Dunnivan and John McIlwee last year and will be selected again on Recognition Day.

Productions were given in the Downstairs Theatre in the Administration Building. Construction is underway for new facilities in the Fine Arts Building.

Potomac State supports a local chapter, Cast No. 110, Delta Psi Omega, the national junior college dramatics honorary society. Members selected for acceptance into this society because of their participation were Pat Fisher, Katharine Stephen, John McIlwee, Robert Schadler, Linda Dunnivan, Patty Cummings, Richard Carey, Carolyn Thrush and Gregory Steck.

Roth Military Honorary Society was formed in 1953 to represent the Reserve Officers Training Corps unit at Potomac State College. Colonel Samuel Roth, then Professor of Military Science at West Virginia University, was responsible for the ROTC unit at Potomac State.

Today, the society stands as one of the most active organizations on the campus. Socially, Roth annually sponsors the ROTC Rifle Team, the Fall Banquet, a float in the Homecoming Parade, and the highlight of the entire college social calendar, the Military Ball. The organization is furthermore responsible for the performance of ceremonial activities of a military nature in connection with Potomac State College activities and many local organizations.

The Society's chief objective is to honor outstanding ROTC students who have demonstrated the high qualities necessary for leadership and have maintained an exceptional military and academic standing. To be invited and accepted into Roth, a student must attain a military science grade of "B" or better and an overall grade average of "C" or above. The distinctive Roth colors, red and white, are displayed in the ribbon and fourragere worn by all members in addition to the ROTC uniform. Membership in Roth Honorary Society is considered a scholastic achievement which is a status sought by all cadets and will as such inevitably carry on in the fine traditions characteristically sought by the group.

The Catamount Rifle Team is sponsored by Roth Military Honorary Society and affiliated with the National Rifle Association. To be a member one must meet requirements set forth by the National Junior College Athletic Association. The aim of the organization is to encourage rifle marksmanship and shooting safety. Sophomore members are awarded sweaters; freshmen are given letters, provided they fire and place in the required number of matches.

The rifle team split two January matches, both shot at Kelley Armory. West Virginia University's freshman team took a 1406-1303 win from the Catamounts as they shot a return match. Allegany Ballistics' sponsored 4-H team gave way to the PSC shooters who won its first.

West Virginia returned to Potomac State after the November match as the Catamounts lost their first competition at the University's range. The PSC high scorers for the Jan. 28 competition were David Duncan 268, James Harrison 267, Robert Fuller 263, Peter Zalos 257, and David Hardesty 248.

The 4-H team appeared on campus Jan. 21 for an experience match. With Potomac State taking the win, the campus riflers' high scorers were James Harrison 264, David Duncan 263, Peter Zalos 244, Robert Fuller 239, and Arch Gray 238.

In March, the Bucknell University rifle team had a match with the Potomac State team at Kelley Armory.

Potomac State's three sororities, Sigma Iota Chi, Eta Upsilon Gamma, and Kappa Delta Psi, and three fraternities, Phi Sigma Nu, Theta Sigma Chi, and Phi Kappa Omega, held their rush parties the week of September 19 under the watchful eye of the Panhellenic. The Panhellenic is the governing body of the sororities and fraternities and regulates their campus activities. The Council promotes good fellowship and cooperation among the Greek letter organizations, assists in maintaining high spirit and engenders within the student body ideals of character and citizenship. One of the highest honors that a fraternity or sorority may bestow on one of their members is to elect him to represent his fraternity on the Panhellenic Council.

Two representatives from each of the fraternities and the sororities on campus form the Panhellenic Council, meeting on the first Monday of each month as prescribed by the group's constitution. The organization establishes regulations and controls for Rush Week activities and fraternal participations in campus elections. Informal dances in the Student Union were sponsored by Panhellenic this year.

Gamma actives taking their national test.

Eta Upsilon Gamma

Eta Upsilon Gamma Sorority was founded at Christian College in Columbia, Missouri, in 1901. It is the oldest national junior college sorority in the National College Panhellenic. Yearly the Gammas try to promote achievement, stimulate school spirit, and broaden and enrich friendships.

During the annual rush week, Omega chapter brought eighteen pledges into the sorority. During October, Nancy Calemine was the Gamma princess to Miss Catamount for the Homecoming festivities. At the Harvest Swing, presented with our brother fraternity, Theta Sigma Chi, Salli Swisher was crowned queen. At Christmas, all Gammas were treated to a Christmas party. During the spring semester, Gammas held a work week to raise money. During this time the girls worked for teachers, townspeople and other students performing different jobs. Always outstanding in leadership and scholarship, the Gammas have maintained a prominent position as leaders on the campus.

Theta sponsor crowns Harvest Swing royalty.

Theta Sigma Chi

Theta Sigma Chi fraternity of Potomac State College was founded in 1922, and is designated Alpha Chapter of the National Theta Sigma Chi Fraternity. Its objectives are the development of high moral character, the promotion of brotherhood, justice and fidelity, stimulation of school spirit and the strengthening of Potomac State College.

Theta Sigma Chi is an active participant in campus activities. In the fall, it sponsored the election and coronation of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Catamount. A few weeks later, the Thetas held a halloween party with their sister sorority, the Gammas. In November, the pledges proved themselves worthy of Theta membership during Hell Week. Later in the year, the Thetas co-sponsored the first Greek letter dance of the year, the Harvest Swing, which honored Jerry Haggerty as king. Other functions included the sponsorship of several informal dances, parties, a rush party for the pledges, participation in intramural athletics and several outings during the spring.

Theta Sigma Chi has many members in high campus offices: Gary Evans, president of the student body; James Montgomery, president of the Freshman Class; James Hardin, vice president of Panhellenic Council; John McIlwee, president of Players; Gregory Steck, secretary-treasurer of Players; and Abraham Evans, chaplain of Roth Military Honorary Society. Thetas are active in many other campus organizations.

Theta Sigma Chi ranks high in loyalty and service to Potomac State College.

Kappa Delta Psi

Striving to promote high moral standards, furthering scholarship, stimulating school spirit, and developing a close feeling of friendship among its members and loyalty to Potomac State College are the main objectives of Kappa Delta Psi, Potomac State's youngest sorority, having been founded on campus April 26, 1951. It has no national affiliation.

To begin the fall season, the Kappas held a semi-formal rush party in Friend Hall Recreation Room. In October, the sorority held a "mixer" with their brother fraternity, Phi Kappa Omega. Also a halloween party was held and all the members dressed in most imaginative costumes. For a Christmas project, Kappa Delta Psi bought four meal tickets for students at Keyser Elementary School. They donated money toward a plaque for the late Mrs. Rebecca Carroll. Because the patronesses of the sorority have been most helpful, a Christmas party was planned in their honor. Kappa Delta Psi and Phi Kappa Omega co-sponsored the Easter Ball. The annual banquet honoring the sophomore members of the sorority closed out the season's activities.

Kappa Delta Psi holds the honor of the highest scholastic average of a Greek letter organization for the 1965-66 school year.

The ideals and objectives are exemplified especially by Judith Collins, who served as secretary of the Freshman Class and was second runner-up in the Miss Potomac State College contest, and Karen Neilson, who was president of the Women's Residence Council and Maid of Honor to Miss Catamount.

Kappas plan Easter Ball.

Phi Kappa Omega

The Phi Kappa Omega Fraternity was organized at Potomas State College in 1949. The objectives of the fraternity are to stimulate high school-spirit, to develop a close feeling of friendship among its members, to build moral character, to promote top scholarship among all its members.

The Phi Kappa Omega points with pride to some of the accomplishments of its members for the past year. Brother Arthur Ford served as Secretary of the Engineering Club. Brother Ronald Shaffer served as Treasurer of the Sophomore Class. Brother Pat Foley was selected on the all Tri-State Conference football team. Brother Terry Tallman was a member of the Dean's List.

In the fall, the fraternity worked hard with the cooperation of the sister sorority to sponsor a float in the Homecoming Parade. Other fraternity functions included an informal party, rush party for the pledges and whole hearted support of all college athletic events.

The traditional Easter Ball will again highlight the fraternity's year's activities. The warmer months of spring will bring the annual picnic with the sister sorority. This will bring a close to the social activities of the Phi Kappa Omega Fraternity, which proudly serves and honors Potomac State College.

Sigma Iota Chi

Sigma Iota Chi Sorority was founded in 1903 by graduates of colleges in Alexandria, Louisiana through the efforts of Greer Duncan. The Epsilon Chapter was established at Potomac State in 1923. The object of this sorority is to perfect and in our everyday lives carry out the meaning of the word sisterhood. Sigma Iota Chi stands for unity, love, and truth.

In the fall, the returning Sigmas began the year with a picnic. In September, the Sigmas had a very successful semi-formal rush party at the Heritage House, which brought 35 pledges into the sorority. In December Sigma Iota Chi and Phi Sigma Nu jointly sponsored the annual Christmas Ball and in February the Sweetheart Ball.

Phi Sigma Nu

Phi Sigma Nu has been an outstanding social fraternity at Potomac State College. Founded in 1922, the fraternity holds membership in the National College Panhellenic and is known as Beta Chapter of the National Phi Sigma Nu Fraternity.

The fraternity demands high moral standards, individual development of character, leadership, and scholastic achievement of its members, as well as loyalty and support for the college. Last year Phi Sigma Nu was proud of the distinction of having the highest scholastic average of all fraternities on campus. Outstanding qualities are exemplified by several members of the fraternity who maintain high campus positions: Jan Cunningham and V. H. Malone, members of Sigma Phi Omega Honorary Society, the former being vice president of the organization; John Brinkley represents the Sophomore Class in Student Government; James Stanton holds the post of president of the Sophomore Class; and Doug Swisher is president of Panhellenic, executive officer of the ROTC band, and a member of the President's Council.

Phi Sigma Nu began the year with an informal rush party to entertain prospective pledges. Refreshments and entertainment highlighted the occasion, and as a result, nineteen pledges were inducted. During Homecoming the fraternity combined efforts with their sister sorority, Sigma Iota Chi, and entered a float in the annual Homecoming parade. At the annual Christmas Dance held December 9, Robin Hauder and Lee Martin were the royalty. On February 11, the fraternity coordinated ideas with their sister sorority and sponsored the traditional Sweetheart Ball. Throughout the year, the fraternity held several informal parties, entertaining the pledges and the Sigma Iota Chi members. Completing the activities at the end of the year, the fraternity held the annual picnic with the sister sorority.

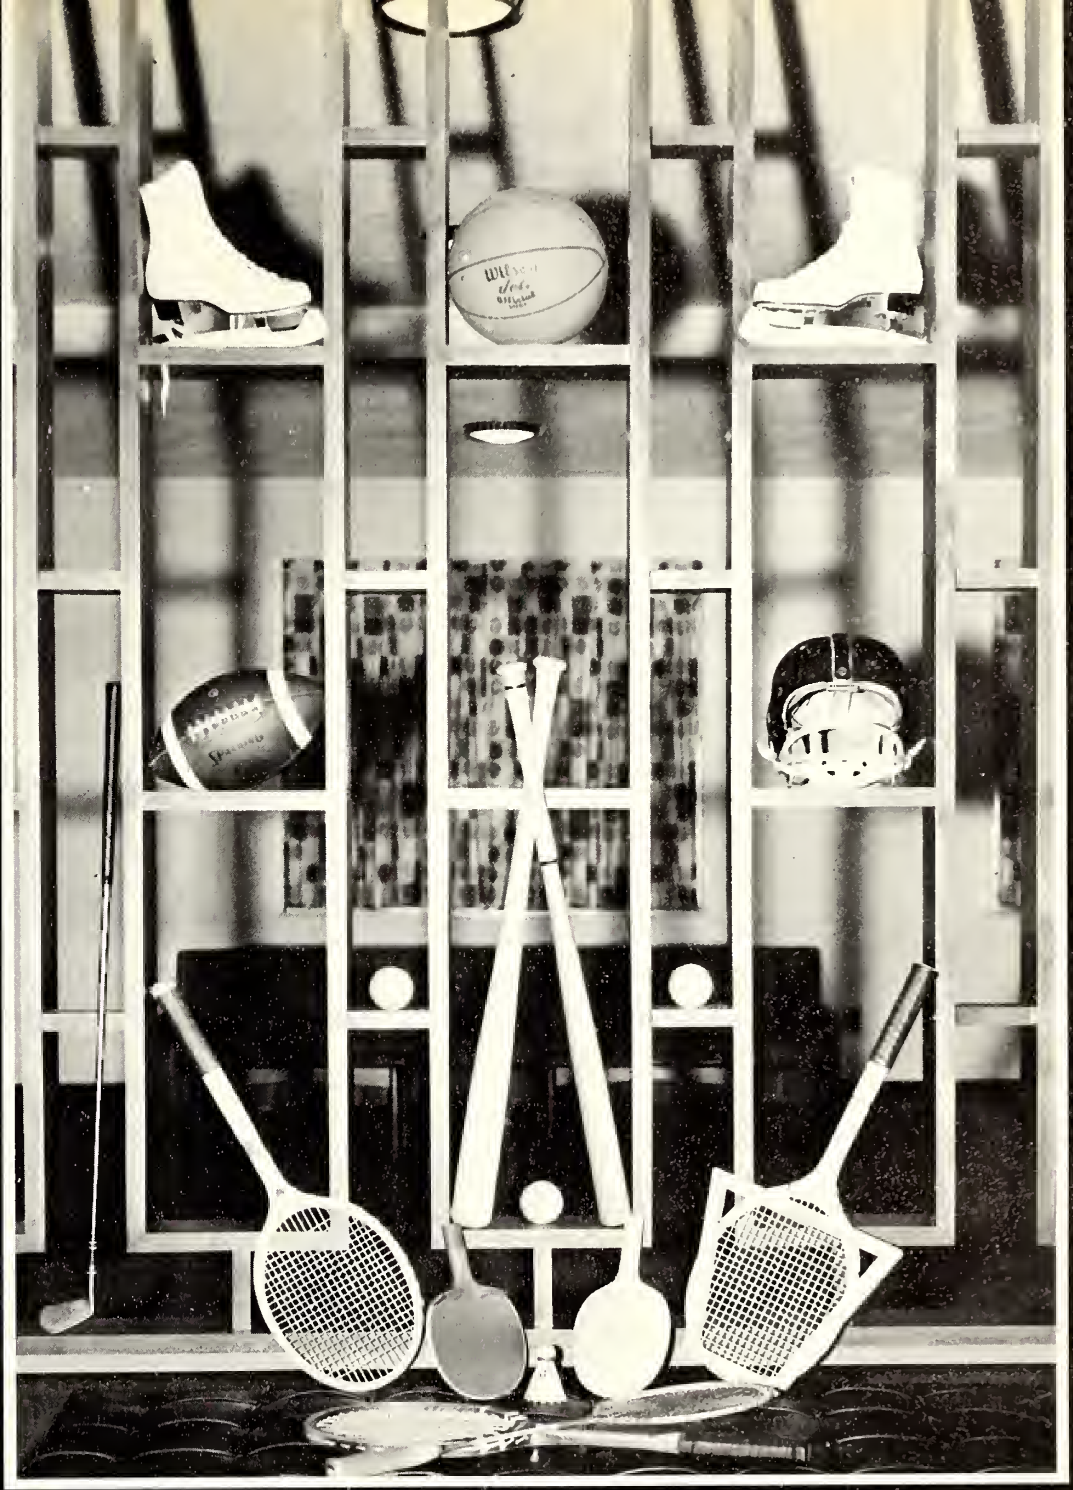
In 1923, a society was established at Potomac State College to foster scholarship and citizenship. Throughout the years, the prestige of this organization has grown, and membership in it is a coveted honor. It has remained a local fraternity with its own constitution, ritual, insignia, and traditions.

Each year the members of Sigma Phi Omega make important contributions to the campus life and participate in many activities. Members always assist at the Parents' Day Coffee Hour; they also sponsor a convocation during Freshman Week aimed at acquainting new students with the campus organizations, their history, officers, and objectives. In the spring, a second convocation, also sponsored by Sigma Phi Omega and known as Recognition Day, summarizes the activities of all campus organizations and furnishes the setting for honors and awards made to outstanding Potomac State College students.

Sigma Phi Omega always closes its year's activities with a formal banquet honoring new members and the parents of all members. On this occasion, an outstanding personage is invited to be the guest speaker.

Members of Sigma Phi Omega strive to be faithful to the pledges made upon their initiation into the organization, to uphold the high standards of scholarship and citizenship maintained by the society, and to co-operate with the college upon all occasions.



ATHLETICS

Potomac State Catamounts Football 1966 Season

A hard-running Catamount back

Football experienced a very mild comeback at Potomac State during the 1966 season, with the Catamounts posting a 2-6 season mark, compared to a 1-7 slate the previous year.

The season opened on a gloomy note, with Bainbridge Naval Academy taking a 28-13 win September 7 at Keyser. A southern trip a week later proved unsuccessful, with Chowan (N.C.) College, muscling its way to a 34-0 decision. Passing was a big factor in both losses, both victors having a potent air attack.

A 34-23 win over Shenandoah helped save a rainy Homecoming Day October 1. The visitors scored on a 73 yard pass play in the first minute of the game, but the Cats moved out to a 13-7 first quarter lead. Another quarter of touchdown trading gave the Blue and Gold a 19-14 lead at intermission. Shenandoah dominated the third quarter, but could muster only one touchdown against the Catamount defense, moving the count to 21-19 with three periods gone. Both teams scored safeties in the final quarter, but two Cat touchdowns provided the margin of victory.

Ferrum (Va.) Junior College, 1965 national champs, welcomed the Loughmen to the Old Dominion October 8 in a very unpolite manner, winning 41-6. A host of hard-running backs led the nationally-ranked Montgomery Junior College Black Knights to a 32-0 win on Stayman Field October 15.

Journeying to Dover, to test another powerhouse, the Catamounts lost their third shutout of the season, 25-0, to Wesley College October 22. The hosts racked up 21 points in the first half and 14 in the final quarter for their victory.

Parents Day, October 29 found Harford College visiting Stayman Field. With all those hopeful parents in the stand, the Cats rose to the occasion, taking a 21-0 victory. Francis Scott tallied all three touchdowns, two of them in the first quarter and another in the final period. It was both a good day for the Blue and Gold and a terrible day for the Owls, who fumbled six times.

In the finale, November 5, the Loughmen lost to Tri-State Conference co-champions Baltimore Junior College at Baltimore, 41-20.

1966-67 Basketball Season

In the season tap-off at Johnstown (Pa.) College November 28, the Catamounts dropped a 82-76 decision. The Loughmen held a 38-35 lead at halftime.

Traveling into Pennsylvania for the second time in a week, the Blue and Gold suffered a 107-79 loss to Altoona College, December 2.

Potomac State broke into the win column December 6, with a 95-75 win over Shenandoah College. It was also the first conference game of the season. The Keyserites were led by Rick Davidson and Gary Evans with 20 markers each.

The home campaign opened December 10 with Prince George's College. The Owls won a 90-85 game by capitalizing on free throws. John Niland ranked number one with 21 points followed closely by Gary Evans with 20 and Joe Lint with 18.

Allegany Community College won the first game of a traditional rivalry December 14, 103-90. The Trojans used a well-balanced attack to win the Tri-State game played at Keyser. First year man Ron Sheets shined on offense, hitting for 24 tallies.

After taking off a week for final examinations, the Blue and Gold traveled to Parkersburg for a pair of pre-Christmas tilts. Playing Mountain State College December 21, the Cats held a 14- point halftime bulge, only to lose, 68-63. Top man in scoring was Gary Evans with 14. The next night Ohio Valley College rang up a 113-64 win. Rick Davidson turned in the best Catamount offensive effort, gathering a total of 18 points.

Johnstown visited Keyser January 5 and left with a 74-61 win and a sweep of the season's series. Potomac won its second of the season January 7 against Charles College by the score of 81-58 in a game played at Keyser. Howard Shores sank 19 points in the victory effort while Joe Lint had 17 and Dave Fix and Bob Thompson netted 10 apiece.

Wesley College, regularly a powerhouse, won a January 13, Friday, tilt, 97-53 in Dover, Delaware. Potomac State's Joe Lint canned 13 points. The next night in Baltimore, the Catamounts bumped into another fine team and lost 101-68. Freshman Rick Davidson poured in 17 for the Staters.

In a return contest the Cats belted Altoona 92-74, but later had to forfeit the January 24 game. Hagerstown Junior College came to town January 26 and pulled out a narrow 75-73 victory. Gary Evans was the Catamount's leading scorer with 33 points, Bob Thompson contributed 13 to the attack while Don Kelley and Joe Lint tallied 10 each.

In the second part of a February 3 double header, the Catamounts rolled to a 90-74 win over visiting Essex. Again the felines were led by Gary Evans and Don Kelley who rang up 34 and 23 points respectively. Going to Cumberland the next night, the Blue and Gold beat Hartford, 109-93. It was the highest Potomac State College total in two years.

PSC dropped their return match against Allegany Community College by the score of 115-107 in a game played on the Cumberland court. The Trojan's victory gave them a sweep of the 1966-67 series.

The Loughmen concluded their twenty-one game slate against Bainbridge Naval Academy on their home floor on February 17.
